Re: WBO Female Jr. Flyweight Championship – Evelin Bermudez vs. Yokasta Valle

Dear Mr. Rodriguez:

Please be advised that the WBO World Championship Committee is hereby granting sanction approval for the above-referenced bout between Evelin Bermudez and Yokasta Valle, scheduled for Saturday, November 26, 2022, at the Dignity Health Sports Park in Carson, California, United States of America.

This bout is sanctioned subject to the WBO Rules and Regulations, most notably that (i) if Yokasta Valle wins the bout against Bermudez, she will have 10-days after the bout to determine which weight division she retains (105 lb or 108 lb); (ii) if Yokasta Valle losses the bout against Bermudez, her WBO Female Mini Flyweight Championship Title will be declared “Vacant” “Ipso Facto”. See, Section 5 (d) of the WBO Regulations of World Championship Contests

Furthermore, sanction approval is hereby granted under the sole and exclusive responsibility of the promoter of the event adhering to and complying with all relevant safety and health protocols enforced by the California State Athletic Commission (CSAC) and all other laws, rules, and guidelines set forth by the relevant government authorities to ensure the participant's safety and well-being.

Lastly, the WBO Championship Committee reserves the right to issue any, and all further rulings deemed necessary, helpful, and convenient to accomplish our rules and regulations' purposes, policies, and intent, including those in the WBO Female Mini-Flyweight and Jr. Flyweight Divisions and the World Boxing Organization.

Yours Truly,

Luis Batista Salas, Esq.
