

WBO FEMALE REGULATIONS OF WORLD CHAMPIONSHIP CONTESTS

(Any rule not included in the Female Regulations of World Championship Contests will be subject to the World Boxing Organization Regulations of World Championship Contests)

World Championship contests recognized by the World Boxing Organization shall be subject to the Rules of Woman's Boxing and to the WBO's Championship Committee rules not in conflict with the ones set forward. All Champions recognized by the WBO as World Champion in her category shall defend her World Championship as required by these Rules.

The recognition of a female boxer as World Champion in any of the weight categories may be suspended or revoked by the Organization, for a proven violation to the Rules and Regulations that govern World Championship Contests, for conduct detrimental to the good name and or prestige of professional boxing, or for any good reason that may be established by the World Championship Committee, including the refusal to participate in a bout that has been duly approved by the World Championship Committee.

A Female WBO Champion who during her reign becomes inactive due to pregnancy, shall relinquish the WBO Championship and upon her return request designation as the Mandatory Challenger if the Championship was filled during her absence, or request contesting to fill the vacancy as the case may be.

A Female World Champion recognized by the World Boxing Organization shall not participate in a Non-Title fight without the prior authorization of the WBO Championship Committee. This authorization shall be subject to such conditions as the WBO Championship Committee determines. In addition, this authorization will be granted only on the condition that the WBO Champion pay a fee to the WBO that is the equivalent of the amount that she WBO Champion would have paid to the WBO if the non-championship fight were conducted as a WBO Championship fight. If the WBO Champion participates in a non-title fight without the authorization, the Championship title may be declared vacant

When a female champion in any weight category seeks to be a Champion of any other category or to unify the title with another Champion of another organization, she must previously request, in writing, the approval of the Championship Committee to participate in said bout. If she is to fight in another category, the female boxer, simultaneously submit a document agreeing to resign one of the two titles in the event of being victorious and obtaining the Champion title in another category. Her resignation shall be effective within ten days (10) following the acquisition of the new title. The Champion who does not request permission to unify her title shall be subject to losing the title held at the time of participating in the unification bout.

When a Female Champion holds a unification title, that is that she is a Champion of another Organization in its own division, every time she defends the title for one or the other body, she shall be defending it for both bodies, thus paying the corresponding sanctions to the bodies she represents and in compliance with the regulatory provisions in affect of the body involved in said defense. Should she fail to comply with this provision; the WBO shall deprive her of the title of Champion of the Division.

When a Female Title, for whatever reason is declared vacant, the Championship Committee shall call on two of the highest and willing contenders, to participate in a World Championship Bout.

When the World Boxing Organization rules and regulations for Female Boxing are in conflict with the Local Boxing Commission Rules, the Local Commission Rules shall apply.

Defense of the Title

These are general rules that apply to female boxing only. Over and above these rules, female boxers are also required to abide by the rules of professional boxing in every jurisdiction and the applicable rules of WBO.

- a. Every female Champion recognized by the World Boxing Organization, must make a mandatory defense of her Title every six (6) months, against the highest available and willing contender. The Championship Committee may order within each six (6) months to defend the title against an opponent to be accepted by the committee. If the Champion wishes to defend her title between mandatory defenses, she may do so against any rated boxer with the approval of the Championship Committee.
- b. When a female World Champion recognized by the World Boxing Organization, fails to comply with her obligation to defend her Title on the date indicated by the Championship Committee, the Title in her division will be declared Vacant.
- c. When the World Champion is not available to defend her Title, the Championship Committee may call for an Interim Champion Bout, between the two approved by the committee. The Interim Champion has the same obligations as the WBO Regulations of World Championship Contests.
- d. When the World Champion is ready to resume fighting, she must defend the Title against the Interim Champion shall begin as soon as the Champion declares she available, never more than 180 days.
- e. A Female World Champion recognized by the World Boxing Organization shall not participate in a Non-Title fight, unless she has applied for and has been granted Special Permission. If the World Champion participates in a Non-Title fight without Special Permission, the title in the Champion's division may be declared Vacant.

Application for Sanction of a World Title Fight

All applications for sanction of a World Title Fight must be accompanied by a signed declaration by the Promoter and respective Boxers, undertaking that the WBO Regulations of World Championship Contests will govern the fight.

bidder. This letter may be an original letter or may be sent by the proponent by facsimile, e-mail or telegraph.

(2) ENVELOPE NO. 2 - PROPOSAL

(A) A written proposal indicating the total purse offered to the Champion and the Challenger, the proposed sites for the Championship Contest, and the proposed date for the Championship Contest. This amount will be net, with no deductions except for the Sanction Fees to be paid by the Champion and the Challenger pursuant to these WBO Regulations of World Championship Contests and tax withholdings required by the law of the country where the fight is to be held.

(B) The Proposal shall include a Purse Bond in the form of a certified check, cashier's check or bank money order payable to the World Boxing Organization, or money in cash, in the legal tender of the United States of America (dollars) totaling Twenty (20%) Percent of the total of the proposed purse. The Purse Bond of the successful bidder shall be retained by the World Boxing Organization to secure the Champion, Challenger and the WBO in the event that the successful bidder fails to promote the Championship Contest pursuant to the Purse Bid without just cause.

(C) The Proposal shall indicate the place or places where the fight is to be held; the Proposal shall not identify more than three (3) potential sites.

(D) The Proposal shall Indicate the date the fight is to be held, which shall not be later than ninety (90) days nor earlier than forty-five (45) days from the date of the Purse Bid, counting from the date of adjudication of the bid, unless the interested parties agree to hold the bout prior to the forty-five (45) days established as minimum. The World Championship Committee may extend the 90 days during which a fight ordered by purse bid may be held for a period not to exceed 45 days for just cause shown.

(d) In the event that no qualified bid is made, the Championship Committee may recommend to the President that the minimum bid be reduced by up to 50% and the purse bid rebid or that the Champion be granted a 120 day extension to make a voluntary defense. The President shall determine which option will be pursued within 30 days and the President will notify the contestants of his decision in writing on or before the expiration of the 30 day period.

(e) When a Championship has been completed, the Purse Bond will be refunded to the Promoter, net of any collection costs or bank charges incurred by the WBO, upon receipt by the WBO of evidence of satisfaction by the Promoter of all obligations secured by the Purse Bond, including all WBO Sanction Fees for the Championship... (see WBO Regulations of World Championship Contests).
