Dear Mr President,

On behalf of Lawrence Okolie, WBO Cruiserweight Champion, we kindly request your assistance and co-operation with the forthcoming Purse Bid in respect of Lawrence's mandatory defence against official challenger David Light.

We are in regular contact with Team David Light, and receiving cordial co-operation, and furthermore we are confident we can reach agreement in the next few days. We just need to agree feasible dates with respective broadcasters.

We therefore kindly request a short 7-day extension period to the Purse Bid so we can finalise our proposals which we are sure will be to the satisfaction of the WBO.

Yours faithfully,

I hope this email finds you well. Please be advised that representatives from Lawrence Okolie and David Light have jointly requested a 7-day extension to reach an agreement before a purse bid is conducted.

Kindly advise immediately if Matchroom agrees or objects to the requested extension.

Thank you,

Dear Gustavo,

The purse bids are tomorrow and we have made all the necessary plans to take part including flying our team to Puerto Rico.

We strongly object to any request to an extension and look forward to the purse bid tomorrow as planned.

Kind regards

Subject: Re: Urgent:- Okolie/Light

Gentlemen,

Please be advised that after conferring with the WBO World Championship Committee your respective positions on the requested extension, the Committee has granted the 7-day extension considering that both fighters through their authorized representatives Mr. Mohit Pasricha (Legal representative for Team Okolie) and Matt Rose (Manager of Team Light), jointly submitted the referenced petition on their behalf.

Therefore, if the parties do not reach an agreement within the granted extension, purse bids will be conducted on Thursday, December 22, 2022, @ 10:00 a.m. at the WBO main offices in San Juan, Puerto Rico.

Lastly, bear in mind that the WBO reserves its right to issue all further rulings necessary and convenient per WBO rules and regulations, including serving the best interests in the WBO Jr. Heavyweight Division.

Regards,

Gustavo
