Re: Injury Update – WBO Jr. Middleweight Champion – Jermell Charlo

Dear Mr. Brown:

On January 6, 2023, this Committee confirmed receipt of written correspondence issued by Mr. Charlo's orthopedic specialist pertaining to the fighter's injury, prognosis, and anticipated return to active competition in compliance with our order dated December 27, 2022.

In light of Charlo's injury this Committee sanctioned the Tszyu/Harrison bout for the Interim Jr. Middleweight Championship on March 12, 2023, at the the Qudos Bank Arena, Sydney Olympic Park, New South Wales, Australia. Tszyu won the title via TKO in round 9. The foregoing bout was sanctioned subject to (i) the Committee reserving the right to order that the winner of the Tszyu/Harrison bout faces in his next bout the WBO Jr. Middleweight Champion in a period no longer than 180 days after the subject matter bout; (ii) the Committee reserving the right to issue all rulings necessary to expedite the activity in the Jr. Middleweight Division.

Therefore, considering the foregoing Mr. Charlo is hereby ordered to submit within the next 5 days upon issuance of this notice a detailed medical update and/or status of his injury, recovery prognosis, and his orthopedic specialist's opinion as to when will he be physically and medically cleared to compete and return to active competition. Failure to comply with this order will result in Mr. Charlo waiving all rights hereunder and with the Committee proceeding per WBO Regulations of World Championship Contests.

Lastly, the WBO World Championship Committee reserves its right to issue all rulings deemed necessary, helpful, and convenient to accomplish the purposes, policies, and intent of the WBO Rules and Regulations of World Championship Contests, including serving the best interests in the WBO Jr. Middleweight Division, respectively.

Yours Truly,

Luis Batista Salas, Esq.
