I. CALL TO ORDER AND OPENING REMARKS

On Tuesday, September 28, 2026, at 12:40 p.m. Atlantic Standard Time (“AST”), the World Boxing Organization (“WBO”) conducted the official purse bid proceedings for the mandatory Middleweight Championship Contest between reigning WBO Middleweight World Champion Denzel Bentley and Mandatory Challenger Yoenli Hernandez.

The proceedings were conducted at the WBO Main Offices in San Juan, Puerto Rico, by WBO President Gustavo Olivieri, Esq., and were simultaneously live-streamed through the WBO's official YouTube channel and Facebook social media account to promote transparency, accountability, and public access to the proceedings.

At the commencement of the proceedings, President Olivieri welcomed the participants and those following the live transmission, and formally stated for the record that the purpose of the purse bid was to determine the promotional rights for the mandatory championship contest between Champion Denzel Bentley and Challenger Yoenli Hernandez.

II. NOTICE REGARDING THE SCHEDULED TIME AND REQUEST FOR DELAY

President Olivieri stated for the record that the purse bid had originally been scheduled to commence at 11:00 a.m. AST.

Prior to the proceedings, the WBO received a written petition on behalf of Queensberry Promotions, requesting a brief delay due to travel-related logistics and proposing that the purse bid be rescheduled for 1:00 p.m. AST.

The request was duly communicated to Mr. Leon Margules, Esq., representing Warriors Boxing, the other promotional entity that had confirmed its interest in and attendance at the purse bid.

Warriors Boxing raised no objection to the requested delay. The proposed schedule change was also duly communicated through the WBO's official website and social media platforms.

President Olivieri further explained that, although the requested rescheduled time was 1:00 p.m. AST, both representatives present at the WBO offices agreed to commence the proceedings at 12:40 p.m. AST. This accommodation was made with the understanding that the representative of Warriors Boxing had an immediately subsequent travel arrangement.

As neither party objected to commencing the proceedings at that time, President Olivieri formally initiated the purse bid at 12:40 p.m. AST, with the consent of the participating representatives and without objection from either promotional entity.

III. APPLICABLE REGULATIONS AND TERMS OF THE PURSE BID

Before receiving the bids, President Olivieri identified Sections 11 through 14 of the WBO Regulations of World Championship Contests as the governing provisions applicable to the purse bid proceedings.

He further stated the following principal terms:

1. Minimum acceptable bid: US$200,000.
2. Applicable purse division: 75% for the Champion and 25% for the Challenger, or 80% for the Champion and 20% for the Challenger, depending upon the location where the championship contest would be conducted, as established in the applicable purse bid notice and WBO Regulations.

3. Promoter eligibility: Each participating promotional entity was required to be duly licensed by the WBO, in good standing, and otherwise qualified to participate in the purse bid.
4. Submission requirements: Each bid was required to comply with the applicable WBO Regulations, including the prescribed documentation, authorization, and payment requirements.

President Olivieri confirmed that the formal purse bid notice, including the applicable terms, conditions, and requirements, had been issued and communicated to the parties.

IV. ATTENDANCE AND ELIGIBILITY OF THE PROMOTIONAL ENTITIES

The following representatives were present on behalf of their respective promotional entities:

- Mr. Alex Dombroff, representing Queensberry Promotions.
- Mr. Alex Bermudez, representing Warriors Boxing.

President Olivieri stated for the record that both Queensberry Promotions and Warriors Boxing were bona fide WBO-licensed promoters in good standing and qualified to participate in the purse bid proceedings.

Both representatives were afforded the opportunity to participate in accordance with the applicable WBO Regulations.

V. INVITATION TO SUBMIT BIDS

Following the opening remarks and confirmation of the applicable rules and requirements, President Olivieri invited the participating promotional entities to submit their respective bids.

Queensberry Promotions, through its representative, Mr. Alex Dombroff, elected not to submit a bid.

Warriors Boxing, through its representative, Mr. Alex Bermudez, proceeded with the submission of two sealed envelopes in accordance with the prescribed purse bid requirements.

For purposes of transparency and to document the integrity of the process, President Olivieri displayed both sealed envelopes to the camera during the live transmission before opening them in sequence.

VI. EXAMINATION OF THE WARRIORS BOXING SUBMISSION

A. First Envelope — Authorization and Administrative Documentation

President Olivieri opened the first envelope and reviewed its contents.

The envelope contained:

1. An authorization letter issued by Warriors Boxing authorizing Mr. Alex Bermudez to act on behalf of the company for purposes of the purse bid proceedings.
2. A copy of the payment documentation reflecting payment of the required US$2,000 purse bid service fee.

The documentation was presented and reviewed as part of the verification of the submission's compliance with the applicable administrative requirements.

B. Second Envelope — Financial Offer and Proposed Championship Arrangements

President Olivieri then proceeded to open the second envelope, which contained Warriors Boxing's financial offer for the mandatory championship contest, together with its proposed dates and venues.

The submitted bid was as follows:

President Olivieri stated the amount of the bid and the proposed dates and venues for the record.

The submission met the stated minimum bid amount of US$200,000.

VII. AWARD OF PROMOTIONAL RIGHTS

Following the review of the submitted documentation and financial offer, President Olivieri confirmed that Warriors Boxing was the sole bidder for the mandatory championship contest, as Queensberry Promotions had elected not to submit a bid.

Accordingly, and pursuant to the applicable WBO Regulations and the terms of the official purse bid notice, the promotional rights for the WBO Middleweight Mandatory Championship Contest between Champion Denzel Bentley and Challenger Yoenli Hernandez were awarded to Warriors Boxing, represented at the proceedings by Mr. Alex Bermudez.

The award was made on the basis of Warriors Boxing being the only promotional entity to submit a bid and its offer meeting the stated minimum bid requirement, subject to the applicable terms and conditions governing the purse bid.

VIII. CONFIRMATION OF THE OFFICIAL PURSE BID NOTICE AND INCORPORATION OF TERMS

Before concluding the proceedings, President Olivieri reiterated for the record that all applicable terms and conditions governing the purse bid were contained in the official purse bid notice issued on September 22, 2026, which had been duly communicated to both participants, Team Denzel Bentley and Team Yoenli Hernandez.

He further confirmed that the official purse bid notice and its terms and conditions had been published through the WBO's official website and social media platforms.

For the avoidance of doubt, the terms and conditions contained in the official purse bid notice dated September 22, 2026, are hereby incorporated by reference into these Official Minutes and shall remain applicable, binding, and enforceable in accordance with the WBO Regulations.

The award of promotional rights to Warriors Boxing is therefore subject to the obligations, deadlines, purse allocations, championship requirements, and all other applicable conditions established in the official purse bid notice and the WBO Regulations.

IX. ADJOURNMENT

Having completed the review of the submitted bid, announced the successful bidder, and placed the applicable terms and conditions on the record, President Olivieri thanked the participating representatives and those who followed the live transmission.

The proceedings concluded at approximately 1:00 p.m. AST on September 28, 2026.

These Official Minutes are prepared to memorialize the material events, statements, submissions, and determinations made during the purse bid proceedings and to preserve the official record of the award of promotional rights for the mandatory championship contest.
