Gentlemen,

The World Championships Committee of the World Boxing Organization (“WBO”), by and through its Chairman, hereby issues this formal Purse Bid Order concerning the mandatory championship defense of the WBO World Mini-Flyweight Championship between reigning WBO World Champion Oscar Collazo and WBO Interim World Champion Ryusei Matsumoto.

On October 19, 2026, the World Championships Committee issued a Negotiation Order directing the parties to negotiate in good faith for a period of fifteen (15) days for the purpose of reaching an agreement for the mandatory championship contest, pursuant to the applicable provisions of the WBO Regulations Governing World Championship Contests.

On October 22, 2026, the WBO received a formal petition submitted by Teiken Promotions, on behalf of WBO Interim World Mini-Flyweight Champion Ryusei Matsumoto, requesting that the World Championships Committee immediately order purse bid proceedings for the mandatory championship contest against reigning WBO World Mini-Flyweight Champion Oscar Collazo.

Having duly considered the petition, the existing Negotiation Order, the mandatory championship obligations of the respective participants, and the applicable provisions of the WBO Regulations Governing World Championship Contests, the Committee determines that the commencement of purse bid proceedings is warranted notwithstanding the pendency of the previously established negotiation period.

The Committee further finds that ordering purse bid proceedings at this stage serves the legitimate interests of both championship participants, promotes the timely fulfillment of the mandatory championship obligation, facilitates the orderly resolution of the Interim Championship status, and protects the continued activity and integrity of the WBO Mini-Flyweight Division.

Having carefully considered the present circumstances, the Committee concludes that the prompt commencement of purse bid proceedings is appropriate and necessary to protect the best interests of the WBO, ensure the continued and orderly activity of the Mini-Flyweight Division and its world-rated contenders, including WBO Interim World Champion Ryusei Matsumoto, safeguard the timely discharge of the Champion’s mandatory championship obligation, and preserve the integrity and orderly administration of the WBO World Championship.

Therefore, pursuant to the authority vested in the World Championships Committee under the WBO Regulations Governing World Championship Contests, and in furtherance of the purposes, policies, and objectives of the World Boxing Organization, the Committee hereby orders that purse bid proceedings be commenced.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED

That purse bid proceedings for the WBO World Mini-Flyweight Mandatory Championship Contest between WBO World Champion Oscar Collazo and WBO Interim World Champion Ryusei Matsumoto shall be conducted pursuant to Sections 11 through 14 of the WBO Regulations of World Championship Contests and under the following terms and conditions:

PURSE DISTRIBUTION

Pursuant to Section 14(e) of the WBO Regulations Governing World Championship Contests, the purse distribution applicable to a championship contest between a reigning WBO World Champion and a WBO Interim World Champion shall be determined as follows:

(A) In the event of a purse bid involving a contest between a WBO World Champion and a WBO Interim World Champion, the special purse distribution provisions under Section 14(e) shall apply in determining the respective participants' shares of the successful purse bid.

(B) The purse distribution shall be calculated by the World Championships Committee using a ratio based upon the average purse of each fighter's last three (3) contests.

(C) For purposes of calculating the applicable distribution, the WBO shall consider the purses officially reported to the organization through the respective promoters' receipts and other relevant financial documentation.

(D) The applicable purse distribution shall be subject to a maximum allocation of seventy-five percent/twenty-five percent (75/25) in favor of either participant, regardless of the mathematical ratio produced by the calculation.

CONDITIONS GOVERNING THE PURSE BID PROCEEDINGS

1. Availability of the Participants.

Should either WBO World Mini-Flyweight Champion Oscar Collazo or WBO Interim World Mini-Flyweight Champion Ryusei Matsumoto suffer an injury, become medically impaired, be prevented from competing, refuse to compete, or otherwise become unavailable to participate in the mandatory championship contest for any reason or circumstance, the World Championships Committee shall proceed with taking any affirmative action authorized under the WBO Regulations, including but not limited to:

- (i) declaring the affected WBO Participant unavailable;
- (ii) selecting the next available eligible contender in the WBO Mini-Flyweight Division; and
- (iii) issuing any additional ruling or order deemed necessary or appropriate under the WBO Regulations Governing World Championship Contests.

2. Twenty Percent (20%) Deposit.

The successful purse bid winner shall lodge with the WBO Main Offices a deposit equal to twenty percent (20%) of the total purse bid by certified check, cashier's check, bank money order payable to the World Boxing Organization, or cash in lawful currency of the United States of America, no later than two (2) business days following the adjudication of the purse bid.

Alternatively, any WBO-licensed promoter may initially submit a corporate check, provided that such payment is replaced by a wire transfer payable to the WBO Main Offices within the same two (2) business-day period.

Failure to comply with this provision shall automatically constitute a default, and the World Championships Committee may declare the successful bidder in default and award the promotional rights to the second-highest qualified bidder pursuant to the WBO Regulations.

3. Confirmation by the Participants.

Within forty-eight (48) hours following the adjudication of the purse bid, both WBO Participants shall confirm in writing to the WBO that they are ready, willing, able, and available to participate in the championship contest.

Failure to timely provide such written confirmation may result in the Committee determining that the non-complying participant is unwilling or unavailable to proceed and taking any action authorized under the WBO Regulations.

4. Executed Championship Agreements.

Both WBO Participants shall duly execute the standard professional boxing bout agreements provided by the successful purse bid promoter, consistent with the terms and conditions of the purse bid award and the applicable WBO Regulations Governing World Championship Contests.

5. Television, Broadcast and Streaming Rights.

The absence of a television, broadcast, digital, or streaming platform agreement shall not constitute good cause to extend the period within which the championship contest must be conducted unless otherwise expressly authorized by the World Championships Committee.

8. Default by the Successful Bidder.

Should the successful bidder fail to promote the mandatory championship contest in accordance with this Order or otherwise default on any material obligation imposed by this Order or the WBO Regulations, the World Championships Committee may revoke the promotional rights awarded through the purse bid proceedings and take any further action authorized under the WBO Regulations, including awarding the promotional rights to the second-highest qualified bidder or issuing such additional rulings as justice and the best interests of the championship require.

9. Additional Conditions.

The World Championships Committee expressly reserves the authority to impose such additional terms, conditions, directives, or requirements during or following the purse bid proceedings as it may deem necessary, appropriate, or convenient.

10. Reservation of Jurisdiction.

Finally, the World Championships Committee expressly reserves its continuing jurisdiction over this matter and the authority to issue such additional rulings, directives, interpretations, or orders as may be deemed necessary, helpful, appropriate, or convenient to accomplish the purposes, policies, and intent of the WBO Regulations

Governing World Championship Contests, including protecting the best interests of the World Boxing Organization, the WBO World Mini-Flyweight Championship, the Mini-Flyweight Division, the participants, and the sport of professional boxing.

Notwithstanding the issuance of this Order, the parties may continue negotiating and confirm in writing to the Committee that an agreement has been reached at any time prior to the commencement of the scheduled purse bid proceedings.

Should such an agreement be timely submitted and approved by the WBO before the opening of the purse bid hearing, the purse bid proceedings shall be cancelled accordingly.

This Order shall become effective immediately upon its issuance and shall remain in full force and effect unless modified, superseded, or otherwise ordered by the World Championships Committee.
